Vignapana Patrika no 924 Dt 6-2-09.

The Swamijaku now states that the anticipated danger from famine has since been averted, that the prospect of the season is fair, that there has been good shower all over the country, that the tanks received an abundant supply of water and the crops are in a fairly good condition. He repeats his prayer for a Release from Govt.

The under-Secretary has made the following observation thereon:—

"The party has interpreted the end Govt. just as was apprehended by the then 2nd Govt. in the case of the Balakrishnamurthy"

Submitted for orders

5/10/09 The order V. Patrika is clear. It does not convey any such meaning as interpreted by the Swamijaku.

5/10/09 By the order did not mean that the Release should depend on account of the Dasara and that the Release should be granted at once. Let this be for the request this council & all a telegram is sent for.
